Mr. Jurrens explained that in 2017 the legislature gave district's the authority to create a Flexibility Account. We have some accounts that are not being used and they have funds in them. This would allow moving funds into a different account and using for other purposes. The intended use of the funds would need to be specified before moving it. The board would like to move forward with this resolution and they have asked Mr. Jurrens to bring details to the next meeting.
Mr. Jurrens shared a book "Schools Cannot Do It Alone" by Jamie Volmer. The book was free to Turkey Valley from Keystone AEA.
Mrs. Cuvelier shared with the board that we have been busy with Parent's nights, Homecoming, Hall of Fame inductions and FAST testing to name a few. USDA program is providing free breakfast and lunch for all students.
Mr. Jurrens shared that the latte sold for $710.00. The CNC router is in. The IASB Convention will be virtual this year. He said that despite the challenges of Covid, the staff and students are doing well.
The board would like to thank the following: The Protivin Boosters who will donate brat patties again for a meal during homecoming week. The Salvation Army donated $1000.00 towards Covid Relief at Turkey Valley. The board would also like to thank anyone and everyone who took part in making the playground project possible. The list is too long to list everyone but please know that your support of Turkey Valley and it's students didn't not have come at a better time! It is such a positive in a year of uncertainties. All the thank yous that the board is sending out this month are to patrons and community supporters who have given to Turkey Valley in some form or another. Turkey Valley is lucky to have such great support! Thank you!
The next regular school board meeting will be Monday, October 12, 2020 @ 7:00 p.m. Moved by Steinlage and seconded by Schmitt to adjourn at 7:44 p.m. Carried unanimously.
